

Worktainment

If work knows fun it's a good one.

If work brings fun it's well done.

If work destroys fun it darkens your inner sun.

If work lacks fun look for a better one.

If fun becomes work it's entertainment.

If fun just comes out of work,
you deal with a workaholic clerk.

If his work is to destroy fun, he's a fanatic someone.

If work and fun are different ones,
people need bread and games.

If work and fun are melting to one
it's worktainment.

Koppywrite 1998